ROLES, OBJECTIVES and ETHICAL GUIDELINES

Section 1.0 Role of the ARSA Board for the foundation of the Teacher Training System in the Asia Region Suzuki Association

- I. Overall responsibility for Teacher Training and arranging Examinations rests with the Asia Region Suzuki Association (ARSA) for every country in the region.
- II. The ARSA Board will decide who shall be allowed to train and examine teachers, subject to the considerations set out in this manual.
- III. The ARSA publish and update the list of approved Teacher Trainers and Examiners in Appendix V and on the website.
- IV. The ARSA may add new Teacher Trainers to the ARSA approved list following these guidelines.
 - a. The ARSA country association submits a request for the addition of a new trainer to hold a training course in the ARSA region including the trainer's CV and a recommendation letter from the country association.
 - b. The ARSA board of directors votes and approves the new trainer before it is added to the list of published ARSA Teacher Trainers.
- V. The ARSA may take Teacher Trainers off the ARSA approved list following these guidelines.
 - a. Proof is submitted to the ARSA board of directors that the Teacher Trainer is not following the procedures of the ARSA teacher training manual.
 - b. The ARSA board of directors votes to take the trainer off the list of published ARSA Teacher Trainers.

Section 1.1 Role of the Country Associations in the ARSA

- I. The Country Associations have responsibility for arranging Teacher Training Courses and Examinations subject to the overriding supervision of the ARSA.
- II. The Country Association must approve the training in order for training to be recognized by ARSA. Training must be held in the host country and taught by ARSA teacher trainers.
- III. Where no Country association exists, decisions rest with the ARSA.
- IV. University based training may be offered. Such programs must comply with the standards set in this manual. The instructor(s) must be ARSA Approved Teacher Trainer(s), and details of the course syllabus must be approved by the Country Association and ARSA.
- V. The ARSA Board will ensure that only the updated International Editions of the core Suzuki materials are used as the basis for teacher training.

Section 1.2 Objectives: To educate Suzuki Teachers to fully understand:

- I. Dr. Suzuki's Philosophy How to explain and discuss Dr. Suzuki's Philosophy, how it applies to everyday life and to the teaching of their instrument.
- II. Performance How to demonstrate successfully in their own playing the application of the Suzuki approach.
- III. Teaching Methods How to demonstrate the Teaching Points of the Repertoire on their instrument, and communicate why any given point is taught in a particular way.

Section 1.3 Ethical Guidelines

As Suzuki Teachers and Members of the Country associations of the ARSA, we commit ourselves to Dr. Suzuki's statement:

'Where love is deep, much can be accomplished'

We therefore strive for the following common ethical declaration.

- a) Reflecting and promoting the Suzuki philosophy in our teaching and in dealings with others.
- b) Recognizing the potential of all individuals.
- c) Demonstrating an open, sharing spirit and cooperation towards other Teacher members.
- d) Dealing with colleagues with humanity, integrity and respect.
- e) Respecting the rights of colleagues when speaking of their work and respecting differences in teaching styles.
- f) Giving credit to colleagues for ideas they have shared.
- g) Making a commitment to life-long learning.
- h) Conducting business in a legal and honest manner.
- i) Respecting and supporting the values, vision and decisions of the ARSA.

Article 2

PREREQUISITES and REQUIREMENTS

Section 2.0 Preparation

Candidates must:

- I. Familiarize themselves with the first four books of the Suzuki Repertoire.
- II. Listen daily to the Suzuki recordings.
- III. Read and ponder the implications of ‘Nurtured by Love’ by Shinichi Suzuki (translated by Kyoko Seldon) and understand how to incorporate this into their role as a Suzuki Teacher.
- IV. Study all necessary books, music and recordings. A partial list of resources can be download at the ARSA website.

Section 2.1 Application

- I. The candidate must be a member of a Country Organization within the Asia geographical region. Teachers residing in countries which do not have a country association must become an individual member of the ARSA.
- II. Any member of a Country Association in the region may take training offered in any country in the region. This training will be recognized in all countries in the region. No prior approval from their Country Association is required.
- III. Must completion of 6+ hours of “Where Love is Deep” (WLID, Suzuki Philosophy), provided by the Country Organization. (Specific guidelines will be provided by ARSA)
- IV. A video audition is sent to your Country Organization four weeks before the course starts. If the audition is not of acceptable standard, course work will not be recognized by the ARSA.

The ARSA Teacher Audition Guide in the appendix provides further details, including fees, formats accepted, the list of required audition repertoire for the various instruments and rules for reapplication.

Article 3

COURSE CONTENT

Section 3.0

Coursework is available for all ISA approved Suzuki instrument areas for which core repertoire has been or is being developed. Currently in Asia this includes cello, flute, guitar, piano, violin and SECE.

Each course must be taught by an ARSA Teacher Trainer (please see appendix). All ARSA Teacher Trainers must meet the ISA requirements for Teacher Trainer Status.

Section 3.1 Entrance Expectations and Requirements

- I. ARSA Board expects teachers to be proficient on the instrument of study and equipped with basic knowledge in areas such as music theory, music history and styles.
- II. As described above, “WLID-Suzuki Philosophy” must be taken prior to the first book course. Active membership in ARSA-and a video audition approved by the ARSA are required for all book courses. The video audition needs to be approved by the country association and the teacher trainer.
- III. SECE course participants must have successfully complete at least Book One training in any approved Suzuki recognized instrument.

Section 3.2 Preparation

- I. All participants in the Teacher Development Courses are asked to prepare the repertoire to be studied to the point of fluent performance. Memorization is not required but is recommended. Additionally, participants should be conversant with the ideas presented in Dr. Suzuki’s book, Nurtured by Love.
- II. All participants will be performing Suzuki repertoire and other materials in class. Strings and woodwinds participants are expected to provide their own instruments. Participants are expected to bring a legally published copy of the most recent edition of the Suzuki volumes being studied and a notebook to all classes.
- III. 100% attendance is required for registering the course. The Teacher Trainer has the option to add assignments and other requirements. Participants should schedule their time accordingly

Section 3.3 Content of Instrument-Specific Book Courses

- I. Each book course concentrates on one Suzuki Book (Book 1, 2, 3, 4, etc.). The content will follow the syllabus for the instrument being studied and will include performance of the repertoire, supervised observation, discussion, and completion of assignments as given by the Teacher Trainer.
- II. In addition to their focus on Suzuki repertoire and instrumental technique, book courses will also include additional topics as appropriate. These may include review and application of Suzuki philosophy, parent involvement, listening, home practice, private and group lesson formats, learning styles, note-reading and other skills basic to the Suzuki approach.
- III. Book courses must be taken in consecutive order through Book 4.

Section 3.4 Course Set-up and Format

- I. Course Applications:
An application must be submitted to the ARSA—at least six weeks in advance by the Country Association in order for the course to be approved and posted, regardless of venue.
- II. Hours and Days: (Book One - 36 hours total, Book 2- above 35 hours total)
 - a) Course must be offered over a minimum of 5 days.
 - b) 36 hours of training (Book 1) and 35 hours of training (Book 2 and above) including lecture and demonstration, and discussion of the Trainer's own home studio students, either live or by video.
 - c) Daily schedule to include a maximum of 7 hours and a minimum of 2 hours of class time.

III. Class Size:

Repertoire-based courses may not exceed 15 participants (any auditors must also be included within this maximum count). The class size may be increased to 20 participants in piano training and 25 participants in violin training if there is an assistant, with prior approval from the ARSA.

IV. Formats:

Book courses may be taken over consecutive days or within a more flexible time frame, as arranged by the Teacher Trainer. Minimum days / hours per book must be met, and observation opportunities must be provided in all training courses.

Section 3.5 Course Registration

After the course is completed, the teacher trainer submits the list of all participants who have satisfactorily completed the course to the Country Association offering the course which issues a Certificate of Participation. The Country Association forwards a copy of this list and copies of the certificates to the ARSA secretary.

Article 4

EXAMINATIONS FOR CERTIFICATION

Section 4.0 Examinations

Teachers are highly encouraged to take ARSA examinations but it is not a prerequisite for teachers to continue to the subsequent level of training. (Trainee must have successfully followed the content as described in Section 3.3 for the training course and completed the assignments as stipulated by the trainer for the earlier level.)

Country Association needs to inform the ARSA Board of the examination. A report to hold the ARSA Teacher Examination should be sent to the Secretary of ARSA one month before the Examination. (This form can be downloaded from ARSA website)

However, before starting Book 4 training, teachers are expected to complete book 1 teacher certification examinations. Please see the table below for details.

To start on training for:	Teachers Certification exams must be completed for:
Book 4	Book 1
Book 5	Book 2
Book 6	Book 3
Book 7	Book 4
Book 8	Book 5
Book 9	Book 6
Book 10	Book 7

Candidates applying for certification will be advised by their course Teacher Trainer which Book-level of examination to take.

- I. Pre Examination requirements: (must be submitted to the teacher Trainer four weeks before the examination)
 - a) Video of candidate performing all pieces by memory.
 - b) Video of the Candidate's students performing all pieces by memory. All pieces must be played and divided between two or more students.
 - c) For the Violin and Piano Book 1 students need to be age ten or younger. Book 2 and above can be any age.
 - d) Complete journal of teaching points.

II. On-site Examination:

- a) Candidate must perform designated pieces and two randomly selected pieces by memory.
- b) On site teaching. To teach one student a designated piece assigned by the Teacher trainer on site.
- c) Answer questions related to Suzuki philosophy.

Section 4.1 Evaluation

I. Performance Evaluation will be made as follows –

8	30 Minutes
9	40 Minutes
10	40 Minutes

Section 4.4 Examiner and Examination Observer

A list of approved Teacher Trainers and Examiners will be published on the ARSA website.

1. The Examiner, who is the Course Trainer for the instrument, will conduct the examination on-site and assess the candidate.
2. An Examination Observer will view the recorded video of the on-site examination and record his observations on whether the examination was conducted according to the rules stated in the ARSA Teacher Training and Examination Manual. The Examination Observer is an appointed member of an ARSA Suzuki country association and from a country different from the Examiner.
3. ARSA will endorse the Examiner's assessment, unless the Examination Observer observes that the examination was not conducted according to the rules set in the manual.
4. ARSA, through the candidate's Suzuki country association, will inform the candidate of the examination result.

Section 4.5 Examination rules

The Examinee must:

- I. Take all book level examinations in progressive order.
- II. Know all Teaching Points at the level presented and be prepared to answer questions on all previous Levels.
- III. Have a thorough knowledge of all pieces in the level, having previously studied and memorized them.
- IV. Give a child a lesson at the book level being examined.

Article 5

ARSA TEACHER TRAINER APPOINTMENT PROCESS

Section 5.1 Basic ISA Teacher Trainer Requirements

A region can only appoint a Suzuki teacher trainer according to its specific and approved regulations (published in their teacher training manual) which must include:

- I. Membership and residence in the regional Suzuki association. A region may, however, appoint a Suzuki teacher trainer who does not live in the region if that teacher trainer has previously been appointed as a Suzuki teacher trainer by another region.
- II. A minimum of 10 years' experience teaching the Suzuki Method at the time of application.
- III. Completion of Suzuki teacher training through the highest book of Suzuki core material for that particular discipline at the time of application.

Section 5.2 ARSA Procedure

- I. Candidate documents his / her membership and residence in the ARSA region and record of 10 years of experience teaching the Suzuki Method.
- II. Candidate completes Suzuki teacher training and passed ARSA Teacher Certification Examinations through the highest level of Suzuki core material for that particular discipline.
- III. Candidate completes the ARSA Teacher Trainer Application and submits all material to the ARSA Teacher Trainer Committee.
- IV. When the application is approved, the candidate becomes a "Teacher Trainer Intern."

- V. The Intern works with an ARSA approved Teacher Trainer for a period of 2 years, during which he / she observes and assists the Trainer in presenting Teacher Training Courses. During the 2 year internship, the Intern must participate and assist in teaching “Where Love Is Deep” (WLID) and Book 1 and 2 teacher training courses for his / her instrument, under the supervision of the designated ARSA Teacher Trainer, as well as observing at least 2 examinations. The Intern must participate and assist in a minimum of 5 courses (one WLID and four at the book 1-2).
- VI. At the conclusion of the two year internship, the supervising Teacher Trainer writes a letter to the Teacher Trainer Approval Committee confirming that the requirements (Stated in Section 5.3) have been fulfilled. The Intern then becomes an ARSA approved Teacher Trainer.

Section 5.3 ARSA Teacher Trainer Approval Committee

- I. The board of ARSA will function as the Teacher Trainer Approval Committee.
- II. The ARSA Teacher Trainer Approval Committee will submit the various segments of the application to ARSA Approved Teacher Trainers for review. Three different trainers (who remain anonymous to the applicant) will review the pedagogy segment, and an additional three trainers will review the performance segment. The segments will be rated “Approved” or “In need of further study.” If the decision is not unanimous, the ratings of 2 of the 3 trainers will prevail. Segments that are not approved can be resubmitted for later approval.

Section 5.4 Materials to be submitted

(More detailed information can be found in the ARSA Teacher Trainer Application.)

All written materials should be submitted in English. Lesson segments should be in the native language of the student(s). (Short, written English translations of the lessons would be appreciated.)

- I. Personal and Professional Information to be submitted:
 - a) A Curriculum Vitae (CV) of the applicant’s educational and musical career.
 - b) A record of the applicant’s teaching experience (when, where, approximate number of students). This must include at least 10 years of experience teaching the Suzuki Method in the instrument area of the applicant.

- c) A record of 100 hours of observation of Suzuki lessons (most of this is included in the candidate's teacher training course work).
- d) Proof of active Regional Association and / or Country Association membership for the previous 3 years.
- e) Three letters of recommendation, one from a parent or student in the applicant's studio, one from another Suzuki teacher preferably of the same instrument, and one from an ARSA Approved Teacher Trainer.

II. Performance

- a) A video of the applicant's performance of the required pieces of the highest book level which is listed at the Appendix (Examination Pieces for Teacher Page 22.) The applicant for teacher trainer should be able to properly perform the repertoire in the highest book of that instrument.
Additional pieces must represent musical periods other than that represented by the required piece. The performances should be with accompaniment, if appropriate.
- b) For Piano Performance, a video of the applicant's performance of the required piece in the highest book level (Book 7), Bach's Italian Concerto (Complete in three movements) and one other advanced piece in the non-Suzuki repertoire in the Romantic period.
- c) A video of 6 of the applicant's students of varying ages performing pieces from the Suzuki repertoire, including two students each of the following three categories: Early Books, Middle Books, Late Books. The performances should be with accompaniment, if appropriate.

III. Pedagogy

- a) A video of 3-5 consecutive minutes showing a lesson with a student age five or younger studying in the first half of Book 1.
- b) A video of portions of two consecutive lessons of the same student (between 5-10 minutes each), showing follow-through of the teaching point(s). The student should be studying in Book 1 or 2 at the time of recording.
- c) A video excerpt of approximately 15 minutes from the lesson of another student in the middle or late book category.
- d) A video of approximately 5 consecutive minutes from a Group Lesson that primarily demonstrates teaching as opposed to students performing.

(Videos should be uploaded as an “unlisted” video in .mp4, .mov or .avi format, with the video link sent with the application. See the application for complete details.)

Evaluation of performance and pedagogy segments will be based on the descriptors in Appendix.

APPENDIX

I. Teacher Audition Guide

The ARSA Committee Teacher Development Program is an in-depth pedagogical study for professional musicians and teachers. To qualify as a Participant in the courses, you must submit and pass an audition.

Training Eligibility Requirements:

- a) Minimum age of 18 and a high school diploma or equivalent.
- b) Active membership in a Country Association.
- c) Where Love is Deep course pre-requisite for Book 1; (no audition required)
- d) Teachers who have previously received training and / or passed examinations in the Asia region are not required to take the introductory course, "Where Love is Deep" to continue their training.
- e) All teachers participating in teacher training courses need to submit the appropriate video audition to continue their training.
- f) The video audition of the appropriate level must be accepted by the Country Association and teacher trainer.
- g) Book 1 through 4 must be taken in order.

Auditions for Courses

Deadline: All audition materials must be submitted four weeks prior to course start.

Preparing and Submitting Your Audition

- Prepare a well-polished performance. Any edition of the required piece(s) is acceptable. Memorization and accompaniment are not required.
- No written or oral comments—performance only.
- Home filming is usually adequate.
- Use a tripod or set your camera on a steady surface.
- Camera must focus on player's hand position and show entire body if possible.
- Each piece must be one continuous take—no video splicing.
- Please review your recording for good video and audio quality before submitting.
- Audition may be submitted online (any video format will work) or by mail on DVD.

Online Submissions

Online submission via YouTube or Dropbox is strongly recommended for faster results.

DVD Requirements

- Make sure your DVD plays on a DVD player, not just on your computer.
- Keep a copy for yourself.
- Label the DVD with your name, instrument, and audition level.
- Include the application form.
- It is recommended that you use a trackable form of shipping.
- Audition materials will not be returned.

Evaluation Criteria

Areas that will be evaluated in your audition include: physical balance, ease of movement, tone production, note accuracy, rhythmic accuracy, intonation, maintaining steady pulse, playing with appropriate tempo, dynamic variation, appropriate and consistent articulation, creation of motion in melodic line and phrase shaping and consistency with stylistic conventions.

A. Basic: For Training in Book 1-4

For training in Book 1-4:

Submit an audition of both specified pieces below to the country association. Roman numerals indicate the movement. Edition is your choice. An accepted basic audition qualifies the applicant to register as a participant in Book 1-4.

Cello:	Breval Sonata in C Major , Allegro and Tchaikovsky, Chanson Triste
Flute:	Blavet Sonata No. 2 in d minor , Sarabande and Finale

B. Intermediate: For Training in Book 1-7/9

For training in the intermediate books:

This audition may be used as an initial audition (as an alternate choice to the others), or after an accepted Basic Audition to continue training beyond Book 4. Submit an audition of the specified pieces below to the Country Association. Roman numerals indicate the movement. Where two pieces are specified, both must be performed (except flute, where it is a choice of movements noted). Edition is your choice.

Cello:	Faure Elegie (for approval through Book 8)
Flute:	Mozart Concerto No. 2 in D Major , K. 314, movement I or II (for approval through Book 9)
Guitar (Classical):	Bach Gavottes 1 & 2 (located in Suzuki Guitar Book 5) and J. Guimares Sound of Bells (for approval through Book 7)
Piano:	Mozart Sonata in C , K. 545, complete, all movements
Violin:	Bach Concerto in a minor , Movement I, BWV 1041 (for approval through Book 8)

C. Comprehensive: For All Training Courses

For training in All Books:

This audition may be used as an initial audition (as an alternate choice to the others), or after an accepted Basic or Intermediate Audition for training beyond the level of the previous audition. Submit an audition of the specified pieces below to the Country Association. Roman numerals indicate the movement. Where two pieces are indicated, choose one. Edition is your choice. Play all cadenza sections (alternate cadenzas are allowed). Candidates may perform alternate repertoire of equivalent standard of difficulty with approval.
